dear Harold

Am on my way out of town on an unexpected trip to Oregon I sure do want to talk to you and I will try to call you on the way somewhere.
Don't give up on me - I think we need to compare notes.
I have tried to push the Nixon adm. on the wine top. So far all we have had is a Grand Jury and no report out of it. So late got to the Politics -

Best regards
Paul

Dear Harold
your letter greatly intrigued me and I very much want to thank to you. I had planned a trip to Washington for next week. Unfortunately my mother is critically ill and we need to be available for a court setting next Friday. I may go to a phone booth & call your station to station after 6 PM my time one day next week & I am thinking of next Tuesday. I won't give you any name but just start talking -
